

Econ 3210

The Economics of Immigration

- Did you know that migration from one poor country to another poor country is as common as migration from poor to rich countries?
- How are Brexit and immigration related?
- What are the consequences of restricting immigration to those with more education?
- Who has the right to birthright citizenship?
- How do we obtain data on undocumented immigration, and what do we know about the characteristics of the undocumented?
- How do refugees, asylees, and dreamers differ?
- Why are some people stateless?
- What do we know about immigration and crime rates?
- Students will learn how to find data to study immigration
- May interest students in business, the College of Arts and Sciences, and the College of Health and Human Services.
- May interest anyone who wants to understand why there is so much debate and controversy today concerning immigration.
- Satisfies WES Level 3 – Local and National Perspectives

WESTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY
College of Arts and Sciences
Department of Economics