

PROPOSAL: Rename the Department of Engineering Design, Manufacturing, and Management Systems to the Department of Engineering Design and Manufacturing

Background

The Faculty Senate Executive Board has approved the renaming of the Department of Engineering Design, Manufacturing, and Management Systems to the Department of Engineering Design and Manufacturing in the College of Engineering and Applied Sciences.

Renaming of the department stems from the fact that management systems is now part of the Industrial Engineering Department.

Recommended Action

Rename the Department of Engineering Design, Manufacturing, and Management Systems to the Department of Engineering Design and Manufacturing.
