

October 3, 2025
Dunbar Hall, Room 0302

9:30	Continental Breakfast & Opening Remarks
10:00	Scott Schweikart (American Medical Association & Indiana University–Indianapolis) "Understanding Death: Harmonizing Medical and Legal Concepts of Brain Death"
10:30	John Han (Washington University in St. Louis) "Medical Invasiveness as Bodily or Doxastic Harm"
11:00	Kathleen Lowenstein (Michigan State University) "Maddening Delusion: Thinking Anorexia and Schizophrenia"
11:30	Break
11:45	Kevin Timpe (Calvin University) [Keynote Presentation] "Systems that Harm: The Ethics of Scaffolding for Support"

12:45	Break/Lunch
1:00	August Gorman (Oakland University) "13 Reasons Pathologized: Depression, Agency, and the Ethics of Suicide Intervention"
1:30	Shani Qi (Western Michigan University) "Paternalism in Medicine Revisited: A Thinker-Based Framework with Exception for Irremediable Mistakes"
2:00	Break
2:15	Blake Hereth (Western Michigan University) "Does Anti-Natalism Prohibit Resuscitating Preemies?"
2:45	Jonathan Anomaly (Herasight) [Virtual] "If You're Reading This Essay, You Should Probably Have Children"
3:15	Closing Remarks

