McConnell explained that the GAPDAC acronym is unwieldy, hard to pronounce, and under-represents the work that the Grade and Program Dismissals Appeal Committee does, specifically omitting the hardship process, which is currently the vast majority of the appeals committee's work. McConnell suggested a change to Appeals Review Committee (ARC). Discussion was held.

It was moved by Miller, and seconded by Triplet, to create a Memorandum of Action to rename GAPDAC to ARC. With two abstentions, the motion carried.
