Cheatham provided the Provost Budget and Personnel report.

2. There is 23% growth in master's programs and 3% in doctoral.
3. Headcount is down 6% from this time last year, and credit hours are down 4.6%, but are still outperforming projections.
4. The enrollment forecast projection is 3.4% below headcount for fall 2022.
5. Ray Thompson was appointed Dean of the College of Aviation.

6. There is an ongoing search for the College of Education and Human Development dean. Finalists will visit the campus in February 2023.

Proudfoot provided the Marketing and Strategic Communication report.

1. The fall marketing is complete. There is an 83% increase in delivery of impressions over fall 2021 and a 26% increase in click-throughs. There has been a 60% increase in digital spending after a review to reallocate marketing based on engagement.
2. The work of Professor Ashlyn Kuersten's class in finding the murderer of Roxanne Wood in a decade-long cold case is getting national coverage.
3. Discussion included measures for improvement in the yield rate. Last year's improvement was 14.7%. One example is the differentiation of prospective student events to offer a unique experience.

Dakin provided the campus facility development report.

1. The Dunbar Hall project is proceeding with furniture being bid.
2. Central campus furniture is being installed; lights are arriving soon.

5. The Student Center project is proceeding. Demolition date for Bernhard has not been set.

Unfinished Business

Chair Lindenberg gave an update on the Student Association (WSA) Neighborhood Association Proposal. Discussion included liability concerns and legal standing off campus. Deraad ensured that the neighborhood association proposal had been reviewed by Keith Hahn, General Counsel, Office of Legal Affairs, and any programs resulting from this review will be reviewed. There was a question about the sustainability of interest in the neighborhood association. Deraad stated there is a core team of WSA students continuing next year that maintains interest. [MOTION] It was moved by Deraad, seconded by Guth, to approve the creation of the Neighborhood Association with the endorsement intended to recognize and provide legitimacy. With three opposing, the motion carried.

WSA asked the council to recommend a member to serve as part of the Neighborhood Association. This position will be completely advisory, with attendance at all meetings. There will be one initial meeting and more meetings as needed. It was recommended that a member of the Faculty Senate, specifically a member of CPFC, be appointed as an advisory member without expectation of attendance in the summer. Discussion included the question of whether a member of CPFC the appropriate choice would be each year. CPFC could not vote to commit a member outside of CPFC. It may be more appropriate for the Faculty Senate Executive Board to name an appointee. There was a review of the 15 November 2022 minutes to clarify the intentions of Faculty Senate President Summy, which stated that the representative "will likely" be from CPFC. The council has provided endorsement for the neighborhood association and will defer to the Faculty Senate Executive Board on the appointment of a representative to the association.

New Business

Holmes presented information security and technology disruption policies regarding Charge 6.

1. The Office of Information Technology (OIT) strategic plan is completed. The primary goal is to strengthen the IT foundation, including the data network, storage capacity, and the ability to provide contemporary services, including AR/VR. The aged network is approaching 30 years old. OIT is seeking funding for update initiatives. Goals include:
  - a. Goal 1: Strengthen the Information Technology Foundation that Empowers Academics, Research, and Institutional Administration
  - b. Goal 2: Enable the Advancement of the WMU Mission Through the Delivery of Contemporary and Sustainable IT Services
  - c. Goal 3: Provide Outstanding Customer Service and Support to All Constituents

2. OIT is in the final stages of creating a new position of Chief Information Security Officer. A cybersecurity administrator has been vacated, and an active search is in progress.
3. OIT held its first cybersecurity summit in October 2022.
4. Faculty and staff extended cyber security training in the fall of 2022. There is currently a 12% completion rate, and goals to complete the training by the end of January. The end-of-semester training launch was due to delays in purchasing the package. This training is encouraged by WMU's insurance provider and guided by national best practices.
5. OIT is working with the University Policy Committee on the creation of an Umbrella Cyber Security Policy. This will allow compliance with many grant requirements.
6. OIT is reviewing Least Privileged Access to mitigate ransomware risk.
7. The Identity and Access Management Overall project is reviewing BroncoID access controls. WMU has multiple identity management systems and is trying to consolidate these as much as possible.
8. There have been changes in the Microsoft 365 environment, including safe links, outside email warnings, and file sharing targets.
9. Duo authentication is being extended.
10. OIT is creating governance structures for change efforts.
11. OIT is pursuing centralization of college IT efforts to reduce redundancy.
12. OIT is adjusting outage notifications to provide status updates. This will be an opt-in system.
13. The goal of 2023 is to revise the Disaster Recovery Plan.
